In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

☒ (4) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the criminal complaint, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information submitted at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 45 year old male citizen of Mexico who has no legal status in the United States. The United States Bureau of Immigration and Custom Enforcement has lodged a detainer against him.
2. Defendant has a prior conviction for being in the United States unlawfully, and a prior arrest for possession of marijuana. He is currently charged with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine and 50 grams or more of marijuana. The charges against him carry a potential penalty of 5 to 40 years in prison.
3. Testimony from investigating DEA agents indicates that defendant was a source of drugs for a major drug trafficking organization.
4. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
